

Guest Film Instructor

The Archer School for Girls is seeking a skilled guest instructor for our Film and Video program. This position starts immediately and runs through mid-June, 2019. The ideal candidate would have a BFA or MFA in film and have an interest in teaching middle and upper school students. Candidates should have expertise in editing techniques, shot composition, video production, and screenwriting. Mastery of the Adobe Creative Cloud and Final Cut Pro X is essential, as well as a desire to collaborate with students and colleagues.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, supporting our film and video program, coordinating our MediaSpace production studio, and teaching middle and upper school film production classes. Depending on the candidate's experience, we are looking for a part-time teacher or a full-time instructor.

The Archer School for Girls is an educational community that supports and challenges young women to discover their passions and realize their true potential. Serving 500 girls in grades 6-12, Archer's joyful and ambitious learning environment is based on the latest research on how girls learn best. Beyond competitive pay and benefits, faculty enjoy working in a collegial, growth-oriented, and joyful community. We seek faculty who will contribute to an equitable and just learning environment. Integral to its mission, Archer has remained passionately committed to cultivating a diverse and inclusive community where all students can thrive personally and academically.
