

Lecturer - Literacy Education
The College at Brockport

The Department of Education and Human Development at The College at Brockport, State University of New York is accepting applications for Lecturer of Literacy Education B-12 in our inclusive education program.

Responsibilities

- Teach undergraduate and graduate courses in literacy education, which includes a 4/4 course teaching load per year.
- Participate in service activities, serve on department/campus-wide committees.
- Work collaboratively with department faculty in dual childhood certification programs.
- Supervise candidates in field experience and student teaching placements at the discretion of Chair.
- Use technology in teaching, including online instruction.
- Participate in program implementation and support program assessment for CAEP accreditation.
- Collaborate with B-12 school personnel.
- Demonstrate continuous professional development.
- Work with diverse students to prepare culturally competent teachers.

Required Qualifications

Earned Master's degree (or higher) in Literacy or related field, teacher certification; a minimum of 3 years demonstrated successful teaching experience at the intermediate and/or high school level; demonstrated successful experience administering varied literacy assessments; demonstrated ability to teach undergraduate and/or graduate literacy education courses; demonstrated ability to work with socially, culturally, and linguistically diverse populations to prepare culturally competent teachers; demonstrated ability to use technology to support teaching and learning; and, demonstrated understanding of disciplinary and content area literacy.

Preferred Qualifications

Terminal degree or ABD in Literacy Education or appropriate field; Literacy Specialist certification and/or experience as a Literacy Specialist or Literacy Coach; background in additional areas of expertise such as critical literacies, digital literacy, language and learning disabilities, education of English Language Learners; evidence of successful scholarship beyond the dissertation; demonstrated familiarity with ILA/CAEP standards; and, successful experience working in an inclusive B-12 setting.

Application Instructions

Visit jobs.brockport.edu to apply.

Preference will be given to application materials received by October 26, 2018 and application materials will continue to be accepted until the position is filled. For consideration, apply online at jobs.brockport.edu and submit the following: 1.) A letter of application explicitly detailing how you meet the required and preferred qualifications including examples, 2.) a curriculum vitae (CV), 3.) the names and contact information for three references, and 4.) a statement of teaching philosophy.

This position requires the successful completion of a background check.