

Spanish Long-term Substitute Teacher

The Archer School for Girls is seeking a skilled and experienced Spanish teacher for a long-term maternity substitute position beginning in January 21, 2019 and lasting through June 12, 2019. The position involves teaching Spanish in grades 6-10 using student-centered methodologies. Proficiency with technology is a must. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to, teaching 4-5 classes, serving as an advisor, and participating in co-curricular school activities. A desire to collaborate with colleagues and a commitment to encouraging the potential in every student is essential.

The Archer School for Girls is an educational community that supports and challenges young women to discover their passions and realize their true potential. Serving 500 girls in grades 6-12, Archer's joyful and ambitious learning environment is based on the latest research on how girls learn best. Archer's World Language courses emphasize spontaneous, fluid conversation in the target language while enhancing cultural awareness and expanding global perspectives. Language courses develop students' skills in all core areas with an emphasis on speaking and listening.

Beyond competitive pay and benefits, faculty enjoy working in a collegial, growth-oriented, and joyful community. We seek faculty who will contribute to an equitable and just learning environment. Integral to its mission, Archer has remained passionately committed to cultivating a diverse and inclusive community where all students can thrive personally and academically.
